The boarding houses and private lodgings are all jam-full, and by to-morrow noon, it is believed that the King's subjects in his capital city will be absolutely countless. In addition to the names sent last night, I report sence here of Mr. Wm. D. Grant, Mrs. L. P. Grant and Mr. Theodore Parrott, all of whom were avant couriers of the Atlanta delegation. This evening's trains brought Mr. J. R. Reynolds, Mr. A. B. Wrenn and Mr. Goodwin, of Atlanta, Mr. W. W. Turner, of Estonton, and Mr. Dunlap Scott, of Rome, are also here. The rush at the hotels to-night was appalling to one unused to the scene that annually attend the coming of the King. It is worse this year, because the St. Louis and St. James hotels are closed, leaving only the City Hotel, the St. Charles and the small fry, to accommodate the thousands of faithful subjects to flock hither from almost every city in the

The indications to-night favor a larger gathering that the Crescent City has ever known. THE FRENCH MARKET Was visited by hundreds, perhaps thousands of Rex's followers on Sunday morning.

Ladles who rarely rise before daylight, turned out in obedience to the fashion of the hour, to drink the famous coffee or to watch the miscellaneous collection of Creoles Chinese, Aboriginals fresh from their native forests, and representatives of almost every other race of the earth. The calls in French of the multitudinious marketmen were both perplexing and amusing. Even the darkies talk Gumbo French. After the market, the sight-seeing stranger generally crosses over to the Cathedral, which stands just where it did last year, and which is not perceptibly older than it was when we first looked on its noble front a year ago. The frescoes of the interior are new and conderfully beautiful, but I believe the same turbaned negresses, the same devout old Frenchmen, the same fleshy ladies in black, were kneeling before the altars, that I saw a Jackson Square of pleasant memory has changed, however. The orange trees are fuller of rich ripe fruit than they were, the rose-blooms are larger and sweeter, and all the trees and shrubs of the charming lit-tle square are doing their level best in honor of the King. And so it is in every part of the city—the orange and Japan plum trees being in nearly every instance healthy and full of fruit. The truth is, the capital city looks very bright and gay and happy this

DECISIONS SUPREME COURT OF GEORGIA

Delivered in Atlanta, Tuesday, Feb. 17, 1874. EPOBTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE CONSTITUTION. HENRY JACKSON, SUPREME COURT REPORTER

Donald McPhee vs, Guthrie & Co. Claim, from Fulton.

WARNER, C. J. On the 24th day of January, 1867, Holmes Sells executed his mortgage deed to Guthrie & Co., upon a city lot in the city of Atlanta o secure the payment of a promissory note for the sum of $3.822.50, bearing even date with said mortgage, and due sixty days after date. The mortgage was duly recorded foreclosed and levied on the city lot described therein and claimed by Donald McPhee It appears from the evidence in the record that subsequent to the execution of the mortgage, the city lot was assigned and set apart to Sells, the mortgagor, as a homestead, for the benefit of himself and family; that afterwards, on the 19th of April, 1870, Selland his wife, with the consent of the Oidi nary, conveyed the lot by deed to the claimant for the consideration of $1,750 00 paid by him. The claimant filed an equitable defense in the nature of a bill in equity, in ac-cordance with the practice of our Courts un-der the provisions of the Code, in which he and other purposes. Passed.

To equalize the labors of the Judges of the several Burerior Courts of this State. Laid on the table for the present.

To authorize E. B. Lawless, of Terrell county, to peddle without license. Amended by adding J. Smith, of Liberty county; also, Peeks, of Banks county; also, Brookshire, of Habersham. Amendment to add the names of Peeks, Brookshire and Smith lost. Crigninal bill passed.

The plaintiffs demurred generally to this equitable defense set up ty the claimant, which demurrer was sustained by the Court, and the claimant excepted. The case then proceeded to trial, and the jury, under the charge of the Court, returned a verdict finding the property subject. A motion was made for a new trial, which was overruled, and the claimant excepted. The main question in this case is involved in the demurrer to the claimant's equitable defense. The pleadings present a new and important question growing out of the unconstitutional legislation of the State in relation to the granting of homesteads affecting past contracts. That the homestead assigned and set apart to Sells and his family, is void, as against the plaintiffs' mortgage there is no doubt; but the question is, whether the improvements put on the property by the claimant under the facts and circomstances as alleged, are subject to be sold in satisfaction of the plaintiffs' mortgage debt, and has a Court of equity in this State jurisdiction to grant the relief prayed for in this case? The mortgages had a vested right in their mortgage lien on the property covered by the mortgage there is the mortgages had a vested right in their mortgage lien on the property covered by the mortgage there is and countried in the countried in as aleged, are subject to be soid in antisfac-tion of the plaintills "mortgage debt, and has a Court of equity in this State jurisdiction to grant the relief prayed for in this case? It is neither equitable ner just that the plaintiffs should be allowed is early admitting that to be so, still, the injunction was properly refused, because it was the right of the judgment creditor to make his money out of any of the property of his debtor that was subject thereto. That is undoubtedly the general rule, as was held by this Court in Barden vs. Brady, (37th Ga. Rep., 660) when the judgment binds all the property of the defendant, but we are not so clear that it would be so under the facts of to appropriate the value of the improvements ent of their debt, when no credit was give heir debt paid out of the value of the imrovements put on the lot by the claimant said, that admitting all that the claimant alleges to be true, still, a Court of equity has no jurisdiction to grant the relief prayed for, between the plate of this case when the judgment only binds the specific property attached. Columbia, Fepruary 17.—The Tax Payers Convention met at noon to day. Two hundred delegates are present. In his opening address President Porter said the bad faith of the State government, and public corrup-tion, and extravagance made the assembling of the convention necessary. The tax pay ers are in de pair. They have no convic freedom, but are subjects of a plain and naked despotism. The preponderanc of political power is in the hands of the non-tax payers, who refuse the tax payers a fair representa-tion for their protection. The proprietary interest representing one hundred and seveninterest representing one hundred and seven-ty millions of property is taxed ad libitum without its consent by those who bear no burden and enjoy the spoilation. Governor Porter showed by facts and figures that the whole taxable properly had declined from five hundred million dollars to one bundred and seventy-five million. The taxes had risen from four hundred thousand dollars to over two and one half million, and the people are virtually required to pay twenty times as much as before the war. The bonded debt is trebled, the amount of the floating debt is unknown; legislative expenses have risen from forty thousand dollars to three hundred thousand, and the public printing from five thousand to three hundred and thirty thousand dollars. He suggeste that the convention should encourage immi gration, organize the tax payers in every county and memorialize Congress for a re-dress of their grievances by resolute words and acts.

The Federal Government can do much to improve our condition, for that Government is the only power the wrong doers fear. Court - Public Debate - President Cox-Planting.

LAGRANGE, GA., February 17, 1874. Our city has been for a week muddy and conse-quantly duil. The Superior Court is now in session— Judge Buchanan presiding. This is an adjourned which is very large.

On Saturday night last, the Phi Rho gave us an exhibition in the way of a public debate, and oration by Mr. A. J. Miller. Mr. Miller did himself full justice. The question debated was, "Which was the Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon Special attention is given to select Suppers, guiltier for the marder of King Duncan, Macbeth or Dianer to order, Wedding Lady Macbeth?" Messrs. Hays and Dansby on the ffirmative Measrs Miller and Dozier on the negative-all of whom acquitted themselves in a very reditable manner.

The music was furnished by Miss Cox and her class, of the Southern Female College.

President Cox has now a larger number of boarders han before since the war. The class in music is very large, as well as that in painting and drawing.

HEALTH'S SHIELD AND PROTECTION. -Health is universally admitted to be the most desirable of earthly blessings, yet it is jeoparded as recklessly as if it were of no value at all. Thousands who are compelled by their occupations and pursuits to breathe unwholesome air, to expose themselves to violent alternations of heat and cold, and to brave other evils inimical to health and life, utterly neglect to fortify themselves against the dangers which surround them by a proper course of tonic treatment. For many years it has been a public fact, undenied even by the martinets of the medical profession, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the best antidote to malaria and the finest acclumating medicine in existence. In fever and ague districts, in tropical and other regions visited by epidemics, and indeed in all localities where the conditions are unfavorable to health, this famous vegetable invigorant and alterative has been found a potent safeguard even to feeble constitutions and fragile frames; while as a cure for indigestion, biliousness and all kindred complaints it is confessedly

CONSTITUTION Atlanta Benevolent Association

rticle 1. This society shall be called the Atlanta

Article 1. This society shall be called the Atlanta Benevolent Association.

Article 2. The object of the Association shall be to relieve the sufferings and wants of the poor, sick and afflicted of this city; to meliorate their condition, and to promote their physical and moral warrar and happiness. But the design is not to superacte the work of the churches in providing for the relief of their own poor, since this duty is devolved on them by the Author of Christianity, and cannot be transferred to any other body or association.

Article 3. The obligations of benevolence are divinely imposed, while, in the providence of God there are always persons whose condition renders them objects of charity, and affords opportunity to the kinu and mercini for doing good. "For the poor shall never cease out of the land." "The poor ye have always with you; and whousever; so will, ye may do them good." By the poor are understood not only the indigent and importrished, but all classes of our suffering humanity.

Article 4. The law of labor is also divinely imposed. "It is the duty of every one, in health and strength, to work, and by honest labor and industry earn his own living, as well as provide for those dependent on him. This law is a part of christianity, since it is plainly declared "that if any would not work, neither shall ho est." The Association do not consider that healthy, able-bodied persons, who can find employment, are objects of charity. They will leave such to provide for themselves and confine their efforts to those in actual distress, especially to widows and orphans in their afflictions, to the sick, diseased, and disabled, to the sged, heipless and infirm. But, when necessary, the Association will assist those who are unoccupied and willing to work to procure employment as a mean of subelistence.

Art. 5. The work of the Association shall be carried on with a view to diminish nauperism and its attend-their afflictions, to the sick, diseased, and disabled to the sged, helpies and infirm. But, when necessary, the Association will assist those who are unocupied and willing to work to procure employ ments a means of subsistence.

Art. 5. The work of the Association shall be carried on with a view to diminish pauperism and its satisfacting, vice and immersity; to eache as for each satisfacting, vice and immersity; to eache as for each satisfacting, vice and immersity; to eache as for industry and or relinement of the poor a point of industry and or relinement of the complete tode pendence, to stimulate inem to liability of industry and or relinement of the complete tode pendence, to stimulate inem to liability of industry and homes for the relindles and the association shall be composed whenever it is hought to be advisable, to obtain a legal charter of incorporation in order to hold real settle, establish, conduct, and manage houses of industry and homes for the poor, the risendles and in the afflicted, and to earry out such designs and rehemes of usefulness as may be in harmony with its papeous and constitutions.

Article 7. Every person paying one dollar shall be considered a member of the Association for one year. The payment of five, then, fifteen, twenty, or twenty five dollars at one time shall entitle the giver to the name of pairon, while the payment of a hundred dollars at one time shall entitle the giver to the name of pairon, while the payment of a hundred dollars at one time shall entitle the giver to the name of pairon, while the payment of a hundred dollars at one time shall entitle the giver to the name of pairon, while the payment of a hundred dollars at one time shall entitle the giver to the name of pairon, while the payment of such the payment of such the payment of such the payment of such the payment of a hundred dollars at one time shall entitle the giver to the name of pairon, while the payment of five, then, fifteen, twenty, or the payment of the description of the such payment of the su
